

One Stop Shop—Value, Service and Convenience

Alicia Ridley, President
ATMequipment.com

ATMequipment.com, a Grant Victor company, is North America's leading wholesale supplier of retail ATM Machines, parts, supplies, and repairs—and a proud sponsor of ATMIA.

Mike Lee, CEO of ATMIA adds "ATMequipment.com is a top-notch international company that provides on-going value to our industry, providing invaluable, cutting-edge support to Independent ATM Deployers to enable them to maintain and grow their ATM portfolios."

"We strive each day to provide unparalleled value and service to our customers. We are more than just a great website for conveniently ordering everything needed to operate an ATM business. We also have a friendly team of highly skilled sales managers, certified technicians, and customer support agents that are anxious to assist—we want to interact with our customers regularly on a personal basis," said Alicia Ridley, President of ATMequipment.com.

Top Tier Distributor

1 out of 4 retail ATMs placed in North America are sold by ATMequipment.com. ATMequipment.com has been North America's #1 distributor of retail ATMs for Hyosung and Hantle (formerly known as Tranax) for the past three years. ATMequipment.com is also a top level distributor of NCR and Triton.

"Our strategic relationships with the manufactures allow us to provide you with the best pricing. Our friendly sales team is here to help you grow and support your business. Conveniently place your orders online 24/7 — or call us and we will be happy to assist you!"

Ryan Langton, Sales Manager

Repair Service Center

ATMequipment.com's repair service center is state of the art and provides guaranteed flat rate pricing, free 6 month warranty, fast turnaround time (typically 1 to 2 days), and complete refurbishments.

"We just don't simply repair as most companies, we refurbish. Our technicians are certified on most major brands and models of retail ATM machines. We specialize in quality repairs while providing friendly and timely service—all at very competitive prices!"

TJ Carter, Service Manager

Parts and Supply Warehouse

ATMEquipment.com has an extensive inventory of ATM parts, paper, signs and decals for most major brands and models of retail ATM machines. The parts manager is a certified technician and can ensure that the right part is ordered the first time.

“We specialize in having the parts and supplies in stock that you need, shipping your order timely to minimize your ATM down time—all at very competitive prices!”

Mark Currey, Parts Manager
